The ASH Minority Medical Student Award Program (MMSAP) provides underrepresented minority medical students with an opportunity to conduct a research project under the supervision of an ASH member, receive guidance from a career-development mentor, gain valuable knowledge of hematology, and ultimately, advance their careers. The program aims to expand its reach to the next generation of hematologists at each stage of their medical training. Applicants to the program can choose a research option that best fits their schedule. Apply to explore the exciting field of hematology!

Receive a Research and Travel Stipend
MMSAP recipients receive the following support during their research experience:
- Summer and flex students: $5,000 stipend
- Yearlong students: $32,000 stipend and $8,000 allowance for research supplies, medical insurance, and educational expenses.

All recipients receive a $2,000 travel allowance to attend the ASH annual meeting in early December; and complimentary ASH membership, which includes online subscriptions to Blood and The Hematologist, during medical school and residency.

To learn more about MMSAP, including specific eligibility requirements, visit www.hematology.org/mmsap or email awards@hematology.org.

To learn more about MMSAP, including specific eligibility requirements, visit www.hematology.org/mmsap or email awards@hematology.org.

Request a Mentor deadline: November 15

Application deadline: January 15

Program year: begins in June