

UCLA Internal Medicine invites you to its Visiting Student Scholarship Program

Students with a commitment to efforts fostering workforce diversity in healthcare are encouraged to apply, in particular, those from groups underrepresented in medicine.

Benefits include:

- Financial reimbursement for travel, housing, and meals up to $2,500
- Exposure to UCLA's rigorous clinical academic environment
- Opportunities to meet with Internal Medicine and Med-Peds residency program leadership and current residents
- Access to nationally-recognized clinical faculty

Program Description

This Visiting Student Scholarship Program (VSSP) is intended to provide financial support to fourth-year U.S. medical students with an interest in fostering workforce diversity in healthcare professions, and in completing a UCLA Internal Medicine Elective. The goal of the program is to promote student interest in applying to UCLA categorical medicine, primary care medicine, and medicine-pediatrics training programs by exposing these students to UCLA's dynamic clinical academic environment.

Eligibility

All students with a commitment to efforts fostering workforce diversity in healthcare professions are encouraged to apply, in particular, those coming from groups that are underrepresented in medicine.

All students must also meet the following criteria:

- 4th year student in good academic standing at an accredited U.S. medical school
- Completed core clerkships in internal medicine, obstetrics/gynecology, pediatrics, psychiatry, and surgery
- Passed USMLE Step 1 prior to rotation

Application Process

The following materials are required 60 days prior to the desired rotation's start date:

- VSSP Application Form (linked here)
  - This includes a Statement of Interest speaking to the importance of fostering diversity and inclusion in our healthcare workforce, as well as specific interest in UCLA Internal Medicine or Med-Peds training.
- UCLA DGSOM Visiting Student Application (linked here), using VSLO elective listing (listed below). This must include:
  - One letter of recommendation from a faculty member in Internal Medicine
  - An official academic transcript
  - A recent CV
