This seminar will be held online.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

1. Explain how Black children are overrepresented in the child welfare system.
2. Identify potential ways that undergoing a DCFS investigation can have harmful effects on a family.
3. Assess a fact pattern to determine whether it qualifies as general neglect.
4. Describe how preventative legal services can benefit a family by outfitting families with legal knowledge.

A recording with closed captioning will be available on the STAR Seminar web page at <https://dpbh.ucla.edu/star-seminar/>.
